Temporary Marketing Permit Applications--21 CFR 130.17(c) and (i)

OMB Control Number 0910-0133--Extension

Section 401 of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (21 U.S.C. 341) (FD&C Act) directs FDA to issue regulations establishing definitions and standards of identity for food. Under section 403(g) of the FD&C Act (21 U.S.C. 343(g)), a food that is subject to a definition and standard of identity prescribed by regulation is misbranded if it does not conform to such definition and standard of identity. Section 130.17 (21 CFR 130.17) provides for the issuance by FDA of temporary marketing permits that enable the food industry to test consumer acceptance and measure the technological and commercial feasibility in interstate commerce of experimental packs of food that deviate from applicable definitions and standards of identity. Section 130.17(c) enables the Agency to monitor the manufacture, labeling, and distribution of experimental packs of food that deviate from applicable definitions and standards of identity. The information so obtained can be used in support of a petition to establish or amend the applicable definition or standard of identity to provide for the variations. Section 130.17(i) specifies the information that a firm must submit to FDA to obtain an extension of a temporary marketing permit.

Description of Respondents: Respondents to this collection of information include private sector businesses including institutional and/or industrial customers and food industry members such as manufacturers, packers, or distributors desiring to apply for a temporary marketing permit or permit extension.

In the Federal Register of April 16, 2020 (85 FR 21247), we published a 60-day notice requesting public comment on the proposed collection of information. No comments were received.
